SOCIETY NEWS.

The Washington Chronicle, of yesterday, says: "Our sister city across the river, Alexandria, has been unusually gay during the past week, entertainments taking place every evening. There is a degree of hospitality exhibited by the Alexandria people that makes one feel perfectly at home, and consequently at ease. The writer of these lines has had occasion more than once to accept of such hospitality, and although possessed of a timid disposition and a feeling of bashfulness, whenever in the presence of so much female loveliness, he can assure you that all such has now been overcome, and he can face a roomful of pretty girls with as much assurance as Aleck Hunter and Capt. Fowle did when they lectured to the denizens of Rawley Springs on the peculiarities of the snake tribes. That was an effort on the part of Aleck and the chevalier that has given them an unlimited reputation."

"Tuesday evening the residence of Dr. D. M. French was all ablaze with youth and beauty, the occasion being a dance given in honor of the return of his son, Lieutenant French, of the Revenue Marine service. All the beauty of Alexandria was congregated in the salon parlor of the worthy doctor, and the entertainment was one of continual enjoyment. During the evening the company were entertained with some choice music from the Sappho Quartette Club, composed of Messrs. Fendall, Howison, Marbury and Lee. The two first named gentlemen also sang the "Lambard Watch," in a very fine manner. Dancing was the order of the evening, and with the exception of the time of the singing, was continued until the affair broke up. Miss Mamie French proved to be a most excellent hostess, and with the assistance of her sister made all enjoy themselves. Among those present, besides the fair young hostess, were Miss Connie Beach, Miss Maud Miller, Miss Smoot, Miss Belle Hunter, Miss Carrie Paulding, Miss Smoot, the Misses Lucy and Annie Withers, Miss Headley, Miss Brent, and many others. Among the guests were noticed Messrs. Fowle, Fendall, Hawson, Parrott, Marbury, Lieut. French, Brockenborough, Lee, Smoot, Gregory, Doyle and Bestor, from Washington, Fleming, Prestman, and others.

"Thursday evening Miss Connie Beach entertained a few friends at her residence, corner of Prince and Washington streets, in honor of her guest, Miss Maud Miller, who left the next day for her home in St. Louis. Miss Maud has been the guest of Miss Beach for several months, and has gained scores of friends by her amiability, all of whom deeply regret her departure. All of the pretty girls and attentive beaux were present, and the evening was one of much enjoyment.

"Friday evening the grand ball that was to take place at the residence of Mr. Wm. H. Marbury, No. 100 Prince street, and a grand affair it proved to be, for congregated within its spacious residence was found the very cream of the social world of our sister city, all of whom enjoyed themselves, and passed a delightful evening. The Marbury house is well adapted for entertaining, being large and roomy, and on this particular occasion was filled to overflowing with guests. Among the many present were Rev. and Mrs. Dame, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Chew, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Neale, Mrs. Browning, Misses Brent, Miss Mamie French, who was becomingly attired in a steel-colored silk, with white over-dress, trimmed with natural flowers, Miss Carrie Paulding, Miss Belle Hunter, Miss Katie French, Miss Rose Hough, Misses Withers, Miss Washington, Miss Sprigg, Miss Kinzer, Miss Fickling, Miss Tyler, Miss Smith, Mr. Johnson, the Misses Masters, Miss Sprague, and others. Among those of the sterner sex were Messrs. Frank Prestman, Daniel, Ashby, Lieut. French, Howison, Fendall, Addison, Stabler, Dr. Powell, Bull, Fowle, Gregory, Lee, Brockenborough, Smoot, Hunter, Parrott, Fleming, and many others."

THE STATE DEBT.

The following is the communication presented to the Finance Committee of the Legislature, alluded to in the Gazette's Richmond letter of Saturday last:

"Hon. W. W. Crump, Chairman Finance Committee, House of Delegates:

"SIR—In compliance with your request the following condensed statement of the financial advantages of the plan now before you is submitted. The term of three years is taken, and the debt is divided into consolidated or tax-receivable and non-consolidated. The non-consolidated debt amounts to $10,000,000, and the interest, at six per cent. (currency) $600,000. Interest on new bonds (gold) $300,000; premium on gold (fifteen per cent.) $45,000; total, $345,000—leaving saved to the State $255,000.

Consolidated debt, $20,000,000. Interest at 6 per cent. (currency), $1,200,000. Interest on her bonds at 4 per cent. (gold), $900,000; premium on gold 15 per cent., $135,000; total, $1,035,000—leaving saved to treasury, $165,000. Annual saving on both debts, $420,000. The interest on new bonds to be offered for consols is put at 4 1/2 per cent. The London holders of these securities now realize 4 1/2 (gold). The higher rate of interest would insure exchange—especially as the new bonds would in a few years carry 5 per cent. interest. Besides, the consols or tax-receivable bond is not, from its conditions, a favorite security in the London market. The new bonds, if they inspired confidence in prompt payment of interest, would have more value and insure the conversion of all consols not directly held by State tax payers. Gold is here estimated at $1.15—higher than the present rate. Any diminution would benefit the State Treasury. The best financiers concur in opinion that the laws of commerce must constantly tend to reduce the premium on gold. Some high authorities hold that before three years the rate will be nearer $1.05 than $1.15. Of course, it may be urged that natural laws might be interfered with by unwise Federal legislation, war, &c.; but human wisdom can only deal with reasonable probabilities. The great and immediate financial advantage the State and all her citizens would derive from a restoration of her credit is too obvious to dwell on. But this is subordinate to the question of the form and character of the new bonds.

"Holders of consols cannot be induced to exchange for new securities which do not bear assurance of prompt payment, and the non-consols class would not surrender 6 per cent. bonds for similar ones of much less interest. These points were discussed in London, and the opinion was hazarded that Virginia might be willing to hedge the new bonds with such guarantees as were in accord with her own laws, administered by her own courts. It was not for a moment supposed she would consent to refer questions between her creditors and herself to any tribunal but her own.

"Your obedient servant,
"R. TAYLOR."

LEDGER'S FLUID (2ED), THE UNIVERSAL DISINFECTANT. (Permanently of Soda.) It is the only true disinfectant known, all other preparations sold for this purpose being merely deodorizers (or articles which possess the property of overpowering unpleasant smells by their own pungent and often disagreeable and dangerous qualities.) It is particularly adapted for disinfecting sick rooms in cases of typhus fever, small pox, cholera, scarlet fever, diphtheria, and all contagious diseases, and for purifying rooms in which there are dead bodies, removing at once all unpleasant smells, and destroying effectually any latent germs of disease. By placing the diluted fluid in dishes or basins, about bed chambers, school rooms, work shops, hospital wards, &c., it keeps the air in a perfect state of purity. For stables, slaughter houses, butchers shops, dairies, cellars, &c., it is invaluable, keeping them in a perfectly wholesome state, by merely sprinkling the diluted fluid over the floors and walls. It keeps dust, dirt, water closets, drains, urinals, &c., sweet and wholesome, by using once or twice a day. For sale by
